“ It was awe not so long ago we had a chance to speak. It was a dreary rainy day and seemed been that way for weeks. We spoke of what little seed was in the ground struggling to survive. We spoke of all the work at hand waiting for the soil to dry. He spoke a bit of his struggles and how it wouldn't hold him down, tho it may try. He spoke about family, which was truly the twinkle in his eye. How proud he was of all his sons not one could be denied. You could see it on his face as he spoke of each of them, each individuals in their own special way. And yes the more he spoke of them the brighter the expression was upon his face. Now worries and pain their are no more. For now my friend lie down and rest your head. be at peace, your work here is done.

*We will dearly miss a friend.

*Pat and Tony - I learned of your loss when the Stober's stopped in to my store after visiting with you at the funeral home. I had not yet heard. I regret that I never met Bob. After reading his obituary and knowing the two of you, I'm sure he was a blessings to those who knew and loved him. May God's love bring peace now and always.
