“ Brian, Logan, Sophie and extended family... It is with heavy hearts that Jody and I received the news of Roberta's passing. I will always remember her gentle and caring personality, being quick with a smile, having an infectious laugh, and maybe being a tad bit ornery - but always good natured. She was the perfect complement to a very dear friend, and I've no doubt a wonderful, passionate and loving mother to her children. Her shared excitement with Brian over Halloween was second to none, as evidenced by her willingness to go all out in decorating and celebrating with friends and family. Although years and time have passed by, and miles separated us, for the time spent with her, Jody and I count it as a privilege, and we will most certainly miss her. May the peace of God sustain your family in this time of loss.
