“ Harriet and I express our sincere condolences, Denelda, to you and your entire family. Art had a full life and contributed much to his church, his community and his country, as you well know. As I think back, there were many happy times I shared with him when I was a child and he a teen-ager, as well as later whenever we met when we were on visits. He was a person with much strength, courage, calmness and faith. Harriet and I send our love.##imported-begin##Ralferd And Harriet Freytag##imported-end##
