

Ronald "Skinner" Spiess

May 12, 1934 - February 8, 2018

Ronald G. "Skinner" Spiess, 83, of Napoleon, Ohio died peacefully on Thursday, February 8th, 2018 at his residence surrounded by his loving family. He was born May 12, 1934 in Liberty Center, Ohio to the late Evan and Helen (Stark) Spiess. On July 12, 1959, he married Connie (Mann) Spiess at the First Presbyterian Church, Napoleon.

Ron worked at Clevite Elastomers in Napoleon for over 38 years until his retirement. He served in the U.S. Navy from 1952-1960 and was stationed in the South Pacific, Antarctica, New Zealand, and Australia. He was a member of the Napoleon American Legion. He loved cars, especially Corvettes and was a member of the Fountain City Corvette Club in Bryan.

He is survived by his loving wife, Connie; children, Jeff (Kim) Spiess of Napoleon; Lynn (Greg) Hines of Liberty Center; Lisa (Dan) Brown of Liberty Center; grandchildren, Erin, Matthew, and Tyler Hines; Brian Brown, Emily (Jordan) Post, and Patrick Brown; great grandchildren, Hadlee and Heath Post. He was also preceded in death by a sister, Janice Hanson.

Ron's wishes were to be cremated and a private burial will be held at Young Cemetery in Liberty Center at a later date. Those wishing to pay tribute to him may do so by making a contribution to Hospice of Henry County.

Online condolences may be made at www.rodenbergerfuneralhome.com.
