“ Kathy, Linda & Karen, I know that you will miss your dad greatly. I was telling your Aunt Marilyn the other day that he was a great neighbor. My memory of him was during the Blizzard of 78 when I was home alone with a 2 year old & a 4 year old & he truged thru the mountains of snow to see if I needed anything. I needed milk, but had no money to pay him, but that made no difference to him. i am sure you have some wonderful memories and I pray that you are all comforted now to kno that he is with the Lord. My blessings of peace to you, Norma Weis###imported-begin###Norma Weis###imported-end##

“ Bobs passing will leave wonderful memories and a huge void in our lives.Holidays will not be the same as he enjoyed all of them at our house. My daughter could not of asked for a better (buddy) than Grampy. One of the fondess memories is when we took Bob to see a Elvis Impersonator for Fathers day,it was a day filled with joy he would never forget! Bob will be terrible missed!##imported-begin##Julie,mitch And Shay##imported-end##
