He was the biological son of Andrew Fulton and the "chosen" child of Jonathon Mekus of Hicksville. He is also survived by his maternal grandparents; Boyd and Dawn Shugert of McClure, Ohio, paternal grandparents; Wendy Jaqua of Waterville, and Michael Fulton of Napoleon, and chosen grandparents; Dave and Karen Mekus of Jewell, aunts and uncles; William (Marlo) Kirn of Jacksonville, N.C., Mindy Smith of Defiance, Jason (Renee) Mekus of Huntington, IN., Amber (Chad) Flory of Jewell, Nathan (Misty) Mekus of Hicksville, Destiny, Jasmine, and Elisabeth Fulton all of Napoleon. “ It was Friday, Sept. 13, when I had time to have fun with Eli Shugart while enjoying dinner with Boyd, Dawn, and friends. A very interesting parenting time was had by all. Now Eli is gone. But he will be remembered as a love child to all of us who had the opportunity to touch his life in one way or another. I am sorry there will not be a private visitation. But we understand. If you need anything Becky, Boyd, Dawn, please let me or Peggy know. Love to all.##imported-begin##Bob Moyers##imported-end##

“ Please accept our deepest sympathies in your loss of Eli. You were there for us when Kevin's parents passed, and during my cancer treatments. Don't hesitate to lean on us, to let us be there for you. I've never seen so many tears at a church service as I did this past Sunday. We all care. I know nothing we say or do will ease your pain right now, but maybe we can sit and cry with you.Love,Kevin and CindyIsaac and RachelJohnson##imported-begin##Kevin And Cindy Johnson##imported-end##

“ I enjoyed having fun with Eli on Friday, Sept. 13, while having dinner with Boyd, Dawn, and friends. We all had the joy of being involved in the parenting process during the time we were together. And now Eli is gone to the heavenly nursery where he will be given to heavenly parents who were not able to be parents for God's children while they were here on earth. I am sorry we will not be able to attend the visitation. We understand. If you need anything Becky, Boyd, Dawn, others, please let us know. Love to all.
