“ I owe a debt of gratitude to Uncle Bob that I could never begin to repay. I learned so much from the man, not only about mechanics, but life as well. My favorite quote from Bob was There's a right way, a wrong way, and my way to do things. I use that saying to this day. He'll be greatly missed.##imported-begin##Randy Rader##imported-end##

“ I have great memories of Uncle Bob. My favorite was when I was working for him at Smith Auto and he said If I'm going to pay you 50 cents an hour your going to work every minute of that hour. and I did. He would make me laugh often even though I was a little scared of him. I always loved visiting him and Marge when I was in Deshler. Uncle Bob always had a great perspective on life and I learned allot from him. He will be missed and always remembered. Larry Smith##imported-begin##Larry Smith##imported-end##
