“ I was so sorry to hear of Eloise's death, and wish to convey my sincere sympathy to Roger and her family. She phoned me one day earlier this year and we had the nicest visit. We did not attend school together, but did take catechism instructions and then were confirmed together at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Napoleon. She was always smiling, and had the softest voice. I always admired her and just wish we had more of an opportunity to be together. With Sympathy,Joan Groll###imported-begin##Joan Groll###imported-end##

“ Tina, I'm so sorry to hear about your mother. I know what it is like to lose a parent, I lost my father 2 yrs ago to cancer. They say time heals all wounds, but honestly it doesn't. You just have your good days and your bad days, and sometimes some days are easier than others. Just remember that it is the selfishness in us that wants them to stay. Because we never want them to leave. That is why we have memories. All I can tell you is remember those memories and laugh often about those fond memories, or if you need to cry then cry but let it all out one way or the other, never hold it all in. In my prayers. And so sorry for your loss. Alicia (Hastedt) Gossman###imported-begin##Alicia (hastedt) Gossman###imported-end##
