“ *Fond memories of my little brother. I loved to hear Steve laugh. He had a funny sense of humor, he liked to tease with a little smile like he knew something you didn't know. We have fun memories of Steve playing heated games of Risk, or Monopoly, with the guys, after holiday dinners. He loved his family; Deb, Brandon, Katlin, Derek and all his grandchildren. He once described Deb as the kindest person he had ever known.
I regret not spending more time together in the last couple of years.*
