“ Sam, I'm so sorry to hear about Nancy. I was at work and heard her name on the radio. I thought no, not her. A woman I work with said, she worked at her reception and at Nickels. My heart sank. I'm so sorry for your lose Sam. You my not remember me, Rabbit's wife, Tina. An ex-barmaid at the Moose. Nancy was so kind and pleasant. Rabbit and I would go into Nickel's to get food for the fish, if there wasn't a bag left, Nancy would make one for us. My heart feels for you, your children, grandchildren-she was exceptional. Rabbit has been gone over a year, feels like yesterday. Drinking won't take the pain away, or anything else. Your family will be your rock. When your able, do things that she'd want you to do, live by trying to make her proud. I'm so sorry##imported-begin##Tina Bauman##imported-end##

“ Our sincere sympathies for your loss. Nancy was a beautiful person inside and out. We first met her when we bought bread at Nichols Bakery. We got to know her better when she entered plants at our HC Fair Flower Show. We then got her interested in floral designs. She became an active and very helpful member of our Fair Flower Show Committee. The committee was together just last month making plans for our 2011 show. She will be missed!! She's in our prayers and may God's blessings be with you.##imported-begin##Bonnie & John Eddy##imported-end##
