

Suber J. Robert

March 19, 2008

Robert James Suber, 70, of Deshler, Ohio accepted his invitation to God's house on Wednesday evening, March 19, 2008; surrounded by his loving family. He was born June 19, 1937 in Deshler to Leo J. and Eileen (Overly-Harris) Suber. On August 26, 1961 he married Judee M. Longbrake at the Deshler United Methodist Church and she survives. Bob graduated from Deshler High School in 1955 and enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps in December of 1955. He was honorably discharged as a Sergeant in December of 1958 and transferred to the Marine Corps Reserves until 1961. Bob first worked for his father at Deshler Foundry and Machine Works and then was a machinery repairman at the former Columbus Bolt of Deshler. He then moved to Hialeah, Florida and became vice president of Hialeah Metal Spinning. In 1975 he returned home to Deshler to own and operate Deshler Metal Working, his father's former business. Deshler Metal Working is the oldest family business in Deshler and is currently in its 5th generation with Bob's son, Jim as the general manager. He was a member of Deshler United Methodist Church and its Board of Trustees. He was a member of Sycamore Lodge #520 F. & A.M., Deshler and the Deshler Chapter of Royal Arch Masons #201. Aside from his family, his greatest love was for his country. Bob was a very Patriotic American and this was evident in Deshler every 4th of July. For the past 14 years, he would welcome family, friends and the entire community to share in the annual "Suber Fireworks". He always remained a proud marine and for several years he honored his fellow soldier by playing "Taps" with his trumpet for military funerals. He is survived by his wife, Judee; four daughters, Denise (Randy) Schlea, Gibsonsburg, Ohio; Peggy (Brent) Musser, Bryan, Ohio; Delina Suber, Deshler; Kathy Suber, Deshler; three sons, John Suber, Deshler; Jim (Ladina) Suber, Deshler; Carl (Kristen Fortenberry) Engelhart, Norfolk, Virginia; eight grandchildren, Cole Gerdeman; Robert Suber, II; Mitchell Gerdeman; Allyson Musser; Alex Suber; Tabitha Musser; Nicole Schlea; Eric Schlea; and a brother, William (Paula) Suber, Deshler. He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Leo Suber. Funeral services will be held at 3:30 p.m. on Tuesday at the Deshler United Methodist Church, with Pastor Mary Bushong and Pastor James Creager officiating. Interment will follow in the Woodlawn Cemetery, Deshler where graveside military honors will be accorded by the U.S. Marine Corps Honor Guard and the Deshler American Legion Post #316. A dinner will follow the interment in the church basement. Visitation will be held from 2-4 & 6-8 p.m. on Monday at the Rodenberger Funeral Home, Deshler where a Masonic Service will be held at 7:45 p.m. in the funeral home. The family suggests memorials be given to the Marine Toys for Tots Foundation or the Deshler United Methodist Church. A special invitation is given to everyone to enjoy a celebration of fireworks in memory of Bob at 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday at his home in Deshler. Online condolences can be made at www.rodenbergerfuneralhome.com.

“ Well Daddy, Ally has graduated high school and as soon as she gets her MOS and ship date we will know when she heads to Lackland Air Force Base....Mitchell leaves for East Afghanistan soon and we had a huge party for him and his buddy who is also being deployed. Cole is still working hard and looking at school options while Tabitha is heading to the 8th grade leading her cheer squad along the way. We talk about you every day and miss you so much!! Brent has started a new hobby which now has exploded into another job....He is farming Hay lol...he loves it...He misses you too....every now and then he will have a problem and say I wish I could call Bob. We all do. Love you much and miss you always. Peggy Ann :)##imported-begin##Peggy Musser##imported-end##

“ Happy 76th birthday to you today in Heaven. This is the 6th birthday we don't get to celebrate with you. Seems much, much longer. Love you honey. Your wife, Judee##imported-begin##Judee Suber##imported-end##

June 19, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ So Bob, I'm turning 75 tomorrow. This is my 6th birthday without you here. I must say ever since you were diagnosed in 2007 every birthday since then has been horrible! I guess 75 is a milestone, but... I miss you and love you and wish you were here with me. Love, Judee, Your wife###imported-begin##Judee Suber###imported-end##

“ Hey Daddy, thinking of you today and always. Ally had her football cheer awards and for the third time has won the Jenny Voight award. It's the equivalent of the Kathy Fly Award. She also was named scholar athlete!! So proud of her. Tabitha was voted most spirited and MVP for the 7th grade squad by her peers. Cole started a new job and is looking at schools in Chicago and Mitchell...well how proud we are! He is finishing up Basic Training as we speak! He heads straight to AIT next week! I am so proud of my kids Dad! I know you would be too. Mitchell told me last week he feels you watching over him and keeping him safe....Thank you! I love you Daddy and miss you much! “ I was in grade school with Robert. His parents and mine were quite close (my dad and mother ran the Deshler Flag during WW II). The last time I saw Robert was in 1949 in Port Angeles, Washington, when his family came to visit us while they were on a trip out west. But, after all these years, I still remember him as a friend of grade school years.

“ To the family of Robert James Suber, I would like to convey my deepest sympathy to you, Judee. Through Cast Metals (Warren Ferguson) in Deshler, Bob contributed machining effort to the castings that were supplied by Cast Metals. I would like to acknowledge his support of the Babcock & Wilcox Co. over the years. I have purchasing responsibility for the company and his contribution was greatly appreciated. “ I knew Bob Suber when he was still “Bobby”. He lived next door to my mother’s and his father’s parents “ John and Gertrude Suber. Since we visited my grandparents often, I sort of grew up with Bobby. He is part of my earliest memories. Bobby was my childhood friend and companion as well as my first cousin. Whenever I visited, he included me in his endless adventures. These included exploring, hunting, fishing, movies, music, chemistry experiments, and, of course, fireworks. Even though he was 1 ½ years older than me, he treated me as an equal and was neither aloof nor condescending. Bobby was a far better trumpet player than I ever became. But, he never alleged that. The most memorable thing that Bobby did for me was when he was a member of the Deshler High School band. He arranged for me to march in that band for a Deshler Memorial Day parade. He later played taps at that event. I knew Bobby best when I was in grade school. When my parents moved from Ohio, I began to see him infrequently. I completely lost touch with him by the time he graduated from high school. I thereafter heard little about him except for occasional reports from my mother. Now, I find that I knew little about him as an adult. While many grieve for Bob, I mourn Bobby.###imported-begin##M Paul Hawes###imported-end##
