“ Hal,
I was sorry to hear about Sue. She was such a large piece of my childhood. We had sleepovers nearly every weekend and delighted in pestering you and my brother Ed. Your family took me along in the summer to all the County Fairs your dad needed to visit. She went with us to Devil's Lake. We were in band and 4H and spent hours on the phone doing homework and talking about everyone. My sincerest condolences to you and to Jason,
Patty (Saneholtz) Matia
