

Tara Jeanette Eberle

April 19, 1983 - February 14, 2026

Tara Jeanette Eberle, 42, of Napoleon, Ohio, passed away peacefully on Saturday, February 14, 2026, at Hospice of Northwest Ohio in Perrysburg, surrounded by the love of her family.

Tara was born on April 19, 1983, in Defiance, Ohio, to Thomas and Debbie (Hardy) Eberle. She was a proud graduate of Napoleon High School and continued her education at Northwest State Community College before earning her cosmetology degree from the Salon Professional Academy. Tara went on to share her passion for the beauty industry as both a talented local hairstylist and an instructor, inspiring others with her creativity and dedication.

A gifted artist at heart, Tara wove creativity into every part of her life, and her love, kindness, and compassion touched everyone she met. Above all else, Tara's greatest joy and proudest accomplishment was being a mother to her three beloved sons, whom she loved and cherished deeply.

She is survived by her sons, Griffin, Grant, and Gunner; her parents, Tom and Debbie Eberle; her brother, Nick (Molly) Eberle; along with several aunts, uncles, and many cousins who will lovingly remember her.

Private services will be held, with burial at Cole Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in Tara's honor may be directed to Hospice of Northwest Ohio in Perrysburg.

“ Tara was such an awesome friend-- offering her love and support whenever she sensed something might not be quite right, and then giving a little raised eye brow when I didn't see things quite as she did--as friends do ;)

Her true love was that of her boys (Griffin, Grant and Gunner) Oh how Tara would light up with pride and joy at the mention of them!! Truly a blessing!!

Tara my dear friend you left us far too soon, and I pray you can feel the arms of love wrapped around you and your precious family!

Until we meet again my friend
