“ I am very saddened to hear of Terry's passing. We have written letters and cards to each other the last 40 years because we served in the Army together. I was just verifying her address online when this obituary popped up. My prayers are with her family, especially her son Mark who I heard about so much as he grew up in her letters. She was my last friend from our Army days.”

“ Mark and Family,

I'm very sorry for your loss. Ms. B truly helped shape who I was going to be as an adult. Her stern but fun ways made everyone respect but also love her! She poured her heart and soul into every one of "her kids". Her smile lit up a room and her laugh filled it, she is one of the good ones and will truly be missed.

“ Mark and family,
I am saddened to hear of Terry's passing. She was the driving force that kept the "old ladies" at Port Clinton High School out having fun and games. There could never be a dull moment with Terry around to shake things up. She kept us younger than our ages & filled us with laughter.
You should know her students loved her as much as we did.
My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
Sincerely,
Jeanie Radloff

“ Mark, I'm so terribly sorry for your loss. From the moment your Mom was born she was one big heart and funny bone stretched from head to toe. Mark and Leann, I'm so sorry for what you are going through. You guys were so close. This just seems like such a gut punch. It was just yesterday we were swinging on Grama Bremer's porch and sneaking sips of beer during the family poker games! I wouldn't have joined the Navy without her advice!! Love to all of you, Cousin Linda

“ So sorry to hear this. She was a great woman. She came for birthday parties and showers. Always loved the grandchildren and was present in their lives. She even met us all in the Smokeys. I enjoyed talking to her. She will be greatly missed. Prayers for all the family.

“ Sudden losses are difficult and losing such a special friend like Terry makes my heart hurt so much. I was so blessed to have met her when we were about 12. We met at a camp grounds and became best friends as did our parents. We never lost touch and wrote letters as she was stationed all over the world. When technology changed, we emailed, spoke often on the phone. I wish I had one more phone conversation. She was the best greeting card sender. Oh I'm going to miss her. Terry was so close to Stu and Joyce. They will be waiting with open arms. My condolences to Mark, her son and her siblings also. My heart hurts for her grandchildren. She loved Christmas and getting them gifts. My sorrow and my last text recently from her on my birthday as we talked about getting old and are achy bodies. She said, We are along for the ride. I love you forever, Terry.

“ From the frozen tundra of Korea to fields and forests of war-torn Europe to the jungles of Southeast Asia, from the deserts of Kuwait and Iraq to the mountains of Afghanistan, brave patriots have protected our nation’s ideals, rescued millions from tyranny, and helped spread freedom around the globe. America’s veterans answered the call when asked to protect our nation from some of the most brutal oppression the world has ever known. Military service demands a special kind of sacrifice. The places where you are sent to live and serve bring risk every day. From the time you put on that uniform for the first time, the interests of the nation move to the forefront and define your life. Those duties are shared by family members who make many sacrifices of their own, sometimes bearing the burden of losing a loved one. Service brings rewards as well. There is the pride in developing one’s own character, serving a cause far greater than self-interest. Every person who wears America’s uniform is part of a long, unbroken line of achievement and honor. No single military power in history has done greater good, shown greater courage, liberated more people or upheld higher standards of decency and valor than the Armed Forces of the United States of America. That is a legacy to be proud of and those who contributed to it must never be taken for granted. To honor our veterans, we must keep the promises we have made to them. We must care for those who have been injured in the service of our country. We must honor and remember those who have died. And we must remember those whose fate is still undetermined. We fly the Prisoner of War flag on Veterans Day for a reason, to show that this nation will not relent until we have accounted for every one of our missing Americans. Thank you for your service. Thank you for all that you have sacrificed for this great nation. Thank you for being the backbone of America.

“ Had so many fun times back in high school band and in lots of weekends with Terry. Had just recently read the many letters she sent me during the early years of her time in the service. It was good to catch up with her at the last class reunion, and again when she met up with us this summer. RIP Terry, we're still in disbelief .
