Nancy L. Tussing February 13, 1947-September 16, 2011 Nancy L. Tussing, 64, of Deshler, Ohio died Friday morning, September 16, 2011 at her residence. She was born February 13, 1947 in Warren, Ohio to Ernest and Irma (Pelto) Kennedy. On July 26, 1969 she married Garland Tussing at the Deshler First Presbyterian Church. Nancy was a lifetime member of the Deshler First Presbyterian Church where she was a Sunday School and Vacation Bible School teacher. She is survived by her husband, Garland; mother, Irma; daughters, Stefanie (Brandon) Johnson, Wauseon, Ohio; LeAnne (Kyle) Markins, Toledo, Ohio and Jacqueline Tussing, Deshler; six grandchildren, Landon Johnson; Whitney Johnson; Maddox Johnson; Peyton Johnson; Alexandra Markins and Savannah Markins; brothers, Michael (Stella) Kennedy, Cleveland, Ohio and Patrick (Suzanne) Kennedy, Watkinsville, Georgia. “ I had the pleasure of teaching across the hall from Nancy for many years at Elmwood. Her love for life and for teaching were contagious. She always had a smile on her face and would drop everything to help someone else. Nancy was loved by her students because she always treated them equally. She was also able to make learning fun and interesting at the same time-what a wonderful quality! Nancy taught me some other valuable life lessons. In a pinch, a red Sharpie marker used gently on your lips, can replace actual lipstick. If you lose the back of your earring, use a small piece of pencil eraser as a replacement. If you want to leave a bit early, keep the light in your classroom on and the door open because people will think you are still there. And last but not least, if a toaster catches on fire, nab your bagel out, and throw the toaster out the nearest window. Nancy, you are up in heaven making everyone laugh and providing valuable advice. Love you bunches!###imported-begin##Sandy Mitchell-brunswick##imported-end##

“ Dear Garland - I am so very sorry to hear about Nancy. I have such fond memories of our time together when we were all associated with Highland. I've been remembering your Doo Dad and my Gomer. I remember him having his leg in a cast but not what happened to him. I can still see Saber running around our yards. Those years were not easy for me as I was only 18 when we moved there. Nancy's friendship made a real difference. I'm sure she'll be dreadfully missed by you and your family. My thoughts and prayers go out to you all. “ Nancy was an inspiration and a role model for me as a kid. She was my softball coach, my bible school teacher, and a true community member of Deshler. My mom, Virginia Collier, who died about two years ago lived a life of service as a nurse. Nancy, lived a life of service as a teacher and a coach. I recently read a description of service as taking life personally, letting the lives that touch your life touch you. Nancy, did that so remarkably well. She made us all feel loved and special. What a gift. My prayers and thoughts are with you Gar, Stefanie, LeAnne, and Jackie.##imported-begin##Kim Collier##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Tussing was the best teacher I have had at Elmwood High School. I only had her for my Senior English class and boy what a class it was! She turned my somewhat love of reading into a passion that I still carry to this day! During my time at Elmwood I gave birth to a baby boy and she impacted my life on the way to raise my son! I remember her always asking me how he was doing and to see new pictures of him....she felt like a grandmother to him in my eyes and I loved that she cared so much. She always told me that if I just worked hard in school I would be able to be the best mom to my son. I went on to graduate on time with my class (1996) and go on to graduate college with a degree in Human Studies with a minor in english....all because of one teach that cared! Thank you Mrs. Tussing for always showing your students you really did care! May you rest in peace and many prayers to your family as they not only morn thier loss but celebrate your beautiful life!###imported-begin###Jaclyn (nelson) Jones###imported-end###

“ Mrs. Tussing was my teacher at Findlay High my senior year the impact she made on my life was incredible, it is a major loss for our future not having a gifted and wonderful person as she flooded our youth with her personality, I only wish my children could have experienced her as a teacher. She made me understand I had an undeniable gift for writing and after high school I began my book which, when finished I owe complete gratitude to her. “ Mrs. Tussing was such a fun teacher! I had her for Senior English at Elmwood. I learned a lot from her about writing research papers which was so helpful in college! I never worried about getting to her class on time because she was usually a few minutes late; rushing in with long strides and a big smile! She was gone from school one nine weeks my senior year having her youngest daughter. We were worried she wouldn't come back with 3 babies at home. But one day she came rumbling back in that big old pick up she drove all the way from Deshler! She was committed! I loved her! God promises to comfort those who mourn. I remember the Great Gatsby discussions and the fact that Mark Husek wanted to move to Rome when she told us they had public baths way back when! What a great sense of humor she had - and always took the time to listen; more people could use that great quality! She was my very favorite teacher at EHS and I will miss her smile and laughter. “ Mrs. Tussing was one of the best; it was always a great time in class and never boring. She was never in a bad mood and always happy! She was never afraid to tell us about her life experiences which is what every 17-18 year old comes to value during their senior year. My husband and I both had her and only have great memories of her! Nothing can ever replace the loss of an individual but to the family you got to live the adventure of life with her and I am sure that was an amazing ride! “ God bless this great woman. I had the pleasure of having Mrs. Tussing as a teacher my senior year and thank God I had her. I was going thru so many personal things in my life and without her I'm not sure where I would be today. She helped boost my self confidence up and let me know I could do anything I put my mind to. She will be missed by all who lives she has touched. I often wanted to write to her and let her know how she impacted my life and I wish I would have but I'm sure she knew.###imported-begin###Brandi (danner) Wonderly###imported-end###

“ Dear Gar, girls and extended family, I'm deeply saddened by your loss. I had NO idea Nancy had even been ill. I so remember all the great years I had the pleasure of being on her softball team, then later playing with her on a team. I can still see her face beaming when she talked about her family. I had the pleasure of being Ernie's nurse when he passed, and I can find comfort and peace for her, with her belief in God, that her passing was without pain and peaceful. I know this doesn't explain it, or bring comfort to you with her loss. All in your own time you will come to realize this was all God's plan. It has been said, that in life, after a loss or a tragic event in one's life, after 63 days it becomes easier. I never really understood that but after the loss of my dad, and Makalie's accident, there is some truth to I know you will all have your days, and you will never forget. After these days pass, you will move on with your lives as you once did, and the pain of the memory will fade. This is God's way of protecting you to move on. I will keep all of you in my prayers during this time, and will add you to my on-line prayer chain. If you have any further prayer request in the future please feel free to email or FB me. If you need any help at all, babysitters for the grandchildren, or you just need a day to yourself to reflect. I'm home every day and I'm sure Karigan would be willing as well. God's richest blessings to all of you at this time, along with prayers of comfort. God knew what he was doing, he took a great angel. My Deepest Sympathy, Karren & Bruce Blue & Family ###imported-begin###Karren Blue###imported-end##
