“ So many wonderful memories of my beautiful Aunt Tori, so many childhood memories of Thanksgivings, family reunions, summers so much fun and always feeling so loved. Aunt Tori, Uncle Clarence, and Pat came to visit me in Germany when my Melissa was just a baby we had so much fun and again I felt the love that my Aunt always showed to all of us. My heart is with my cousins and even though I can't make it back to Ohio know that I am thinking of you all and send my love. Several weeks ago I called Aunt Tori and thanked her for always making me feel loved and for being a wonderful Aunt I am so glad I had the opportunity to have that last conversation with her.

Sara, or as Aunt Tori always called me Louise

“ Big Sis I will miss you so much. I will never forget how you and Clarence (Cocky) made the hurt of the lose of Mom so much easier and made so many of Penny and I Christmas's so much more pleasant after her passing. Big Sis you and Cocky always had nice gifts for us each Christmas. I will always remember the time when you were sewing and I lent over to give you a kiss and the needle stuck in my chin and you just laughed and said be careful you big dummy. I just wish I could have hugged you and gave you a kiss one more time. I will love you and miss you for the rest of my days. Rest In Peace big Sis.
