September 21, 2024

Vilma Jean Aguiar, a vibrant spirit, who touched the lives of many, passed away peacefully at home on September 21st. She was born in Bombay, India and had a long career in both the private and public sector. Known for her warmth and social nature she connected easily with people. This is evident in the large number of friends and family across the world.

Vilma is survived by her three children and their spouses; Corina (David) Smith, Vinona (Aaron) Bennett, and Sunil (Noela) Aguiar. She took great pride in her nine grandchildren Sarah (Christian), Samuel, Silas, Priya, Abigail, Hannah, Aidan, Esther, and Elijah and great-grandchild, Rachel. She is also survived by her sister, and three brothers, and many nieces and nephews. She was a wonderful and loving mother, grandma, and great grandma. She sacrificed a lot to raise her three children, and also always made special occasions fun.

Vilma was a devoted friend and family member, and her legacy will live on in the hearts of all who knew her. She will be missed by all whose lives she touched.

“ I got to know Vilma through a friend and once we started talking she had so much faith, hope and love to share her journey of what she was going through. I said to myself I want what she's having. Her energy and faithfulness in our heavenly Father was so endearing she loved her family spoke about her grandchildren and her daughter and husband how fortunate she was to have them close to care for her. She was hopeful that she would fight till the end and she did. She won God's Grace to be with him and suffer no more. Rest in Peace Vilma 🕊️ you will be missed
