

Walther Shannon

March 17, 2009

Shannon Paul Walther, 37, lost his brave battle with Non-Hodgkins Lymphoma on Tuesday at Swanton Valley Care and Rehabilitation in Swanton. Shannon was born on August 31, 1971 to his loving parents, Robert and Pam Walther of Deshler, Ohio. He has a sister Gena (Dave) Bzovi and a niece, Anna Bzovi. He was a 1990 graduate of Patrick Henry High School and held a Bachelor's Degree from Bowling Green State University and a Master's Degree from Tiffin University. On August 25, 2001 he married Jodi (Stoufer) Walther, and on November 6, 2004 he proudly welcomed the joy of his life into the world, his beautiful daughter, Sadie Dalen Walther. Shannon was employed by Owens Corning in Toledo, Ohio and spent much of his time transforming his incredible ambition into numerous business ventures; some of which came to fruition and others which resided comfortably in his mind for future use. Shannon had the ability to see opportunities where others would not, and he would not hesitate to take those who were interested along on those rides. Shannon was an amazing person who could strike up a conversation with anyone at anytime. He loved his family more than anything on Earth, and will now be able to watch over us all from a much broader vantage point. During his 2 year battle with this devastating disease, Shannon had the constant and unwavering support of his family and friends, but the soldiers who are left standing, who dug into the trenches with him day in and day out, are his wife, Jodi; mother, Pam; Father, Robert; and Sister, Gena. Even in the most questionable days, Shannon always knew he was surrounded by the purest, most unconditional love. We are all so proud and honored to have been given the privilege to know and love Shannon. He bravely left this Earth surrounded by that same core group of "pillars", and he wouldn't have wanted it any other way. His beloved Sadie will always have an Angel of her very own, and although she will miss playing with Daddy, she understands that he was very special and that his is always with her now. Preceding him in death and welcoming him to Heaven are his Maternal Grandparents, Eugene and Bessie Miller; and Paternal Grandparents, Harmon and Vinifred Walther (Deshler). The family would like to thank all of the family and friends who have rallied around us from the beginning. You kept us going with your kind words and prayers, and we love you all. And in all this heartache and pain, please keep in mind that Shannon is up there right now trying to figure out how to develop and market the latest in high-tech angel wings! A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, Deshler with Fr. Jeff Nordhaus officiating. Interment will be in Woodlawn Cemetery, Deshler. Visitation will be from 2-8 p.m. on Friday at Rodenberger Funeral Home, Deshler. The family suggest memorials to the Shannon Walther Benefit.

“ Dearest Robert, Pam, Gena and family, Jodi and Sadie, Even though we could not be with you physically today as you celebrated Shannon's life,our hearts and prayers were with you all day as they have been since the loss of Shannon. His memories will live with us forever and because of his generous spirit, we will all have a special angel watching over us. After many months of pain and suffering Shannon is now at peace and in the loving arms of our Heavenly Father and rejoicing with all our parents and loved ones that have gone before. Shannon has fulfilled his mission on earth. May we all be as brave as he was. May God hold you and all of us in His arms during this time of grief and always keep Shannon's life a shining memory to help sustain us.##imported-begin##Tom And Nancy Briggs##imported-end##

“ To your whole family, Jodi, Sadie, Robert, Pam, Gena, and others of your family, our saddened hearts go out to you at the great loss of Shannon. Robert Counselman Sr. has been receiving treatments and medical care for the same wicked foe, Non-Hodgkin’s Lymphoma for several years now, and so we understand the stress it puts on the whole family even during treatments alone. Thanks to the Internet we can contact you through this means even though we are out-of-town at this time; even though we are not able to be there for you in person, we are deeply saddened and are thinking of you. We will get with you when we return home. May peace and comfort from our Creator help you to sustain yourselves through this great loss. The Counselman Family of McClure, Ohio

“ I remember when Shannon and I first met, Shannon and Jodi were shopping at Best Buy and I worked in the computer department. Shannon was always someone people were drawn too and the relationship began from there. I can remember when we started working together and the fun laughs/ dreams we both shared about life. Shannon actually helped me realize how lucky I was to be friends with him and work with him after one night he followed me for 30 minutes to make sure I was safe after a Company Viewpoint meeting. Shannon will be missed, but never ever forgotten.##imported-begin##Tom And Jen Murphy##imported-end##

“ Shannon always had a smile on his face and always spoke very positive. Shannon was such a joy to be around and talk to. He never met a stranger, and loved his family very much. He will be greatly missed by all.##imported-begin##Norma J Guest##imported-end##

“ I wished that I knew Shannon better. I always had interesting conversations with him whenever I ran across him at work or out in the Public. He was a thinker and planner! It looks like he was surrounded by love and now he will surround all of his family and friends with the same affection from a much better vantage point. My thoughts and prayers are with his family.##imported-begin##Lance Sowell##imported-end##

“ Sending out my prayers and sympathies to the family and friends of Shannon Walther. I can NOT imagine the pain that you are going through right now. The tears running down my cheeks right now aren't for Shannon because he is in a MUCH better place- the tears are for the ones that he has left behind. Please let me know if there is ANYTHING that I can do for you guys.##imported-begin##Tiffany Neiling-geer##imported-end##
