“ Diane, Linda and families, Our sympathy is with you. But the grief of your and all of our loss quickly changes to smiles as we think about all the great times we had with Aunt Mary (wait - I never even knew that until I saw the obit) Clarine. That ever-positive attitude and always present smile and laugh we will never forget, and all those visits to your farm and Thanksgiving Day(s) at St.Louis in Custar. I am just so happy that we got to share that trip to Milwaukee. It is hard to believe that the end came so quickly, but we have to know she is in a better place with Carl and Marie now. Our son, Tim could not believe that it was so quick either; his comment: that Clarine was as lively as Dorothy when we were in Milwaukee (hmmm - I guess we'll just have to think about that one). Our thoughts and prayers are with you. See you tomorrow. Love & prayers, Jan, Steve, Tim & Patrick Deters##imported-begin##Steve Deters##imported-end##

“ My Memories of Aunt Clarine Where to begin? My fondest memories of Aunt Clarine go back to when I was a little girl. Her daughter, Marie, and I were very close. We were in the same grade at St. Louis and it continued on to when we attended Westwood High School and then Bowling Green High School. Sadly, she passed away just after we graduated from high school. When I heard of Aunt Clarine’s death, I was saddened and then many wonderful memories came back to me. I spent a lot of time at their house. I remember the little play kitchen set that was in the hallway on the second floor. We spent hours doing dishes, baking, and playing house. Part of the reason I liked to visit them was because Aunt Clarine always spoiled me. Coming from a family of ten children and going to a family of three children gave me just the extra attention that I knew Aunt Clarine would give me. It was not only the kitchen set that caught my attention but also exploring in the outdoors. I was always the coward when it came to living a bit on the edge. One time we decided it would be fun to climb the big tree in their back yard. We were all up there and everyone started jumping out of the tree. Well, me being Chicken Little, I was afraid but when everyone else was doing it, I decided that I had better jump just to save face. Guess what – I twisted my ankle. No wonder I was Chicken Little. I was always such a klutz. No worry, Aunt Clarine to the rescue fixing me up as best she could. Oh and I remember the corn crib when it was empty. It was such a fun place to play. We were able to move the kitchen set outside then and continue with the same fun in an open air atmosphere. Don’t forget the barn and all those little pathways made with the hay. I’m not sure what was at the end of the long narrow tunnels – we must have thought a pot of gold because it had to be something special or we wouldn’t have gone through all the dirt and grime to get to our destination. Another memory was when Marie and I made our First Communion. My dad was Marie’s godfather so our families spent time together that day. Her First Communion dress was just beautiful; Aunt Clarine always had a knack for clothing her daughters in what seemed to be the very finest attire. Aunt Clarine’s kindness went far beyond her own family. She would extend that thoughtfulness to our family. I remember many days in grade school coming home and asking my mother if Aunt Clarine had visited. You see, lucky for us, when she came to visit mom, she usually had a little bagful of clothing goodies; her daughters were always just enough taller so when they outgrew their clothes, she would bring them to us. It was like Christmas. What a wonderful Aunt she was. I'll always remember her kindheartedness. Thanks Aunt Clarine for making such an impression on me. Thanks to you Lynn and Diane for sharing your mother with me. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Tricia Reynolds
