“ Dad, I can remember when we first brought you to Ohio. It was spur of the moment but I never regretted that decision for a minute. The time I spent with you was never dull lol I loved taking care of you for the past 7 years. Through every chemo appointment and doctor visit but mostly our Friday ritual. Taking you out to eat was a precious memory I'll never forget. The stories you told me made me laugh and I think my favorite was the time you were driving the bus and got pulled over. When the cop asked you how many lights it had you told him 30 and he said well 29 of them are out!! 😂😂 No matter how many times I heard it I had to chuckle. You will be missed and loved forever!! Rest easy and fly high "Old Goat" Love you.....April
